Associate Justin McCarthy Joins Pacifica Law Group's Litigation Practice Group

Seattle—Pacifica Law Group is pleased to announce that Justin McCarthy, has joined the firm as an associate in its litigation group.

Justin's practice will focus on representing public and private clients in trial and appellate litigation. His experience includes successful representation of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors in a contentious dispute with the Los Angeles County Sheriff. Justin also represented the County of Los Angeles in a series of lawsuits challenging the constitutionality of the County's emergency response to COVID-19. In another recent matter, Justin represented the City of Inglewood and Mayor James Butts against attempts to block construction of the new Los Angeles Clippers arena.

Before joining Pacifica, Justin worked at two well-known law firms in the Los Angeles area, and also interned at the California Department of Justice in the Office of the Attorney General. "Justin's litigation and advocacy experience will be an asset to clients in both the public and private sector. We are very pleased to welcome him to the firm and to the Litigation practice group," said Paul Lawrence chair of Pacifica's Litigation practice group.

Justin completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Washington and his law degree at the University of California, Berkeley.
