Public Policy and Political Matters

Kai Smith's practice focuses on complex commercial disputes, constitutional law, election and political law, and insurance recovery for policyholders. He has successfully prosecuted or defended against a variety of constitutional, defamation, and commercial actions; has drafted and defended multiple laws and ballot measures, including ones focused on gun violence prevention; and has assisted clients in recovering millions of dollars from insurers.

Kai also provides counsel and strategic advice to help clients navigate important and sensitive issues, particularly in the areas of public records, statutory and regulatory compliance, legislation and public policy, and student data privacy. He also drafts and interprets contracts in a variety of transactional settings.

Before joining Pacifica, Kai was a litigator at an international law firm based in Washington, D.C., where he represented clients in high-stakes matters, including complex antitrust matters and federal enforcement actions. Notable experience includes successfully representing Expedia in obtaining clearance from the U.S. Department of Justice in Expedia's $1.3 billion acquisition of Orbitz Worldwide.

Previously, Kai served as a law clerk for the Honorable Sidney R. Thomas of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Kai is committed to public service and has provided free legal representation throughout his career, including counseling victims of domestic violence and representing a family from El Salvador in asylum proceedings in federal immigration court. He is also a Board Member of the King County Municipal League Foundation.
