Pacifica Law Group Promotes Kai Smith to Partnership

Seattle, WA — Pacifica Law Group is pleased to announce that attorney Kai Smith has been elected to the partnership, effective January 1, 2023.

An experienced civil and appellate litigator, Kai's practice focuses on public entity representation, constitutional law, public policy and political law, and complex commercial disputes. Kai also provides counsel and strategic advice to help clients navigate important and sensitive issues, particularly in the areas of legislation, ballot title appeals, public records, and statutory and regulatory compliance.

"We are very pleased to welcome Kai to our partnership," said Denise Stiffarm, managing partner at Pacifica Law Group. "He is highly regarded in the legal community and in his areas of practice. Our clients have benefited from his expertise for many years, and we are proud that Kai has chosen to build his career at Pacifica," she added.

A Northwest native, Kai earned his law degree at Stanford University and his undergraduate degree at Seattle University.
