PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation
Municipal Law

Rebecca Garland's practice focuses on e-discovery for complex litigation matters. With a background in e-discovery and litigation software, Rebecca is seasoned in leading litigation teams through the e-discovery lifecycle from document preservation through production. In addition to e-discovery, Rebecca provides advice to clients on information governance, document retention, and the Public Records Act.

Prior to joining Pacifica, Rebecca worked as lead discovery attorney at both an international firm and a boutique litigation firm in the Pacific Northwest. Rebecca obtained her law degree from the University of Memphis School of Law. Upon graduation, she served as a judicial law clerk for the Tennessee Court of Appeals and served a second term as a federal law clerk for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee.

Rebecca is a native of Tennessee but has made Seattle her home for over 15 years. When not practicing law, Rebecca enjoys traveling, reading, and spending time with her family.
