Sarah Du's practice focuses on representing public, private, and non-profit clients at every stage of litigation in both state and federal courts.

Sarah has an extensive background in government litigation. Before joining Pacifica, Sarah was a trial attorney at the U.S. Department of Justice, where she defended the United States against complex personal injury, wrongful death, and property damage suits. During law school, she interned for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York and the U.S. Department of Justice.

Raised in the Pacific Northwest, Sarah is a proud graduate of Redmond High School. After law school, she clerked for the Honorable Stanley A. Bastian of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Washington.

In her free time, Sarah enjoys singing along to Broadway musicals, doing escape rooms with her husband, and watching college football.
