With a background in public service, Eugene Lee advises and represents clients in state and federal courts.

Before joining Pacifica, Eugene served as a law clerk to the Honorable Ronald M. Gould of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and to the Honorable John H. Chun of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Before law school, he taught English at high schools in South Korea through the Fulbright Program.

In his free time, Eugene enjoys exploring Seattle and reading in its many bakeries and coffee shops. He has also co-hosted the Divided Families Podcast, which aims to provide a platform for connecting stories of family separation.
