Emma Daniels is an associate in Pacifica's Public Law and Finance Practice Group, where she represents clients in a variety of public finance matters with an emphasis on nonprofit facility and affordable housing finance. Her experience includes serving as bond counsel and disclosure counsel on financing matters for public entities, including state agencies, cities, housing authorities, and universities.

Prior to working at Pacifica, Emma practiced at another Seattle-area firm representing clients in mergers and acquisitions, debt finance, and corporate governance matters.

During law school, Emma served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington and as the Editor-in-Chief for the Seattle Journal for Social Justice.

In her free time, Emma enjoys playing volleyball, ceramics, and getting outdoors whenever the Seattle sun shines.
